TENURE-TRACK FACULTY APPOINTMENT
IN NEW TESTAMENT
BEGINNING JULY 1, 2020

Qualifications

- Commitment to the seminary's doctrinal standards (Westminster Confession of Faith and Catechisms and the Three Forms of Unity), and to Presbyterian church polity.
- A PhD degree in New Testament or related field.
- Ordination (or potential) as a minister / teaching elder in a confessional Presbyterian or Reformed church, and pastoral experience is highly desired.
- Evidence of promise as a teacher and scholar.

Responsibilities

- Teach M.Div and M.A. students New Testament and Greek and their relationships to the rest of the biblical canon for proper interpretation, Reformed theology, and sermon preparation.
- Contribute to the church's ministry and theology through research, writing, and speaking.
- Fulfill other faculty responsibilities (student advising, committees, ecclesiastical service, etc.).

Benefits

- Salary will depend on rank, to be determined by education and experience.
- Other standard benefits (medical, retirement, moving expenses, four weeks vacation, professional society expenses, study leaves, etc).
- Initial appointments are normally for three years. The decision to award tenure normally occurs in the eighth year (or occasionally earlier).

About Westminster Seminary California

- Founded in 1979 by Westminster Theological Seminary in Philadelphia, PA.
- Since 1982 WSC has been an independent institution with its own board and faculty (12 full-time in residence, 4 emeritus, and 6 adjuncts), accreditation (Association of Theological Schools, Westminster Association of Schools and Colleges), and 19 acre campus (approximately 30 miles north of downtown San Diego).
- WSC's purpose is to combine our historic commitment to the inerrancy of Scripture, the great truths of Reformed Christianity, and superior scholarship with an emphasis on practical preparation for ministry.

- An excellent faculty-student ratio enables professors and students to express Christian community and pastoral nurture toward one another.
- A commitment to residential education, which has been enhanced by new campus housing consisting of 64 1-, 2- and 3-bedroom apartments.
